Dear Mother

I have just received your letter of the 10th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope these few lines will find you the same. I have not much news to write at present. The weather here is very warm and the crops are doing well. I have not seen any of the old friends here. I have not much news to write at present. My dear Mr. Green,

67

Such is the state of my health but now, the special of my business of church, that it will not be wise for me to go to Framingham tomorrow, & attempt a kind in the open air. I regret it much for I want to hear what will be said. But I have best written out what I should say if present - at least a part of what I meant to say. We are too long & too dull to read them, but we can put it in our Literary Journal of the little college

Yours faithfully,

Thos. Parker.
